

Graduation Standards

The VSC has established graduation standards in writing, quantitative reasoning, information literacy, and oral communication. The colleges will design and implement assessments for each of these areas according to a schedule determined by the Council of Presidents. Successfully fulfilling graduation standards at one VSC institution will be accepted as fulfillment of the standards at any other VSC institution for an equivalent associate or bachelor's degree. The VSC and the colleges will report regularly on student performance on the assessments.

Signed by: Robert G. Clarke Chancellor
