

Title

Number

Page

501

2. Nothing herein or in the Chancellor's procedures or illustrative guidance shall be construed to be inconsistent with the provisions of any collective bargaining agreement unless such contrary interpretation is required by law.
3. Nothing herein or in the Chancellor's procedures or illustrative guidance shall be construed to limit the rights of trustees, students, faculty and employees to express personal opinions or to engage in political activity in their capacity as private citizens.

Cross References: Policy 402 Use of College Facilities by Non-